Insurance Industry Whistleblower to Headline Health Care Forum

Friday, December 18th, 2009 — 7:00 p.m.

First Unitarian Church, 1800 Bell Avenue, Des Moines , IA

Featuring : Wendell Potter

former health insurance industry executive-turned - whistleblower

Wendell Potter has served since May 2009 as the Center for Media and Democracy's Senior Fellow on Health Care. After a 20-year career as a corporate public relations executive, last year he left his job as head of communications for one of the nation's largest health insurers to try his hand at helping socially responsible organizations -- including those advocating for meaningful health care reform -- achieve their goals. Before his big switch, Wendell held a variety of positions at CIGNA Corporation over 15 years, serving most recently as head of corporate communications and as the company's chief corporate spokesman.

Join us to learn about

- What's really going on in Washington on national health care reform
- Real life tales of insurance company bad practices and how current proposals solve these problems
- What you can do at this time to support reform

The forum is being coordinated by Iowa Health Care for America Now and the Iowa Health Care Working Groups and co-sponsored by many Iowa health care reform organizations including the Alliance for Retired Americans, Every Child Matters, First Unitarian Church of Des Moines, Iowa Caregivers Association, Iowa Citizen Action Network, Iowa Main Street Alliance, RESULTS and Working Families Win.
